The local area has a Carers Support Service, which can give information and support for people who are caring for others. For instance they can provide:

- Information, including benefits, equipment, respite and local services for carers.
- A free quarterly newsletter about relevant issues for carers.
- Activities and training for carers on such topics as looking after your back and first aid.
- Someone to talk to about how you are feeling as a carer.
- Access to low cost complementary therapy sessions.

You should contact your local Carers Support Service by visiting: <http://www.carerssupport.org.uk/>, or telephone free on 0300 028 8888 or email info@carerssupport.org.uk.
